Application for an Offshore Humanitarian visa

Refugeeand Humanitarian (ClassXB) visa

Form
1043

The Department of Home Affairs (the Department) acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia.

This includes understanding that the English language, as the national language, is an important unifying element of Australian society. Australian society is also united through the following shared values:

- respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual;
- freedom of religion (including the freedom not to follow a particular religion), freedom of speech, and freedom of association;
- commitment to the rule of law, which means that all people are subject to the law and should obey it;
- parliamentary democracy whereby our laws are determined by parliaments elected by the people, those laws being paramount and overriding any other inconsistent religious or secular 'laws';
- equality of opportunity for all people, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, or national or ethnic origin;
- a 'fair go' for all that embraces:
  - mutual respect;
  - tolerance;
  - compassion for those in need; and
  - equality of opportunity for all.

The Life in Australia booklet provides more information on the values that Australians share and their way of life. This booklet is available in a wide range of languages and can be obtained from www.homeaffairs.gov.au

You are encouraged to read the Life in Australia booklet before completing this application form. If you have difficulty, or are unable to read the booklet, you may have the content of it explained to you, for example, by a friend or relative. This form contains a statement, that you must sign, that confirms you understand and will undertake to conduct yourself in accordance with the values of Australian society (as explained in the booklet) and will obey the laws of Australia.

is statement must also be signed by each person aged 18 years or over, who is included in this form.

Who should use this application?

You should use this form if you are outside Australia and wish to apply for entry to Australia on humanitarian grounds. This class of visa includes the following 5 subclasses:

- Refugee (subclass 200)
- In-country Special Humanitarian (subclass 201)
- Global Special Humanitarian (subclass 202)
- Emergency Rescue (subclass 203)
- Woman at Risk (subclass 204).

You should also use this form if you are applying under the Community Support Program.

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. When you have completed your application we recommend that you keep a copy for your records.

Australia's offshore Humanitarian Program

There are a limited number of places available each year under the program. In setting the size of the program, the Australian Government considers:

- the views of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR);
- the views of the Australian community; and
- Australia's capacity to settle refugees and people in need.

Requirements for each visa subclass

Your application will be assessed against the 5 visa subclasses of the Refugee and Humanitarian (Class XB) visa class. To be granted a visa, you must be assessed as meeting the requirements for one of these subclasses. These are set out in Australia's Migration Act and Regulations and the main requirements for each subclass are:

Refugee (subclass 200)

- You are living outside your home country; and
- you are subject to persecution in your home country; and
- you are in need of resettlement.

The UNHCR provides advice to the Australian Government on the need for resettlement.

In-country Special Humanitarian(subclass 201)

- You are in your home country; and
- you are subject to persecution.

Only a small number of places are available under this subclass.

Global Special Humanitarian (subclass 202)

- You are living outside your home country; and
- you are subject to substantial discrimination amounting to gross violation of your human rights in your home country; and
- you have included a valid form 681 Refugee and Special Humanitarian Proposal with your application.

Form 681 needs to be completed by an Australian citizen or permanent resident, eligible New Zealand citizen, or community organisation in Australia (a 'proposer') who is willing to support your application.

As the government does not fund travel costs for this visa subclass, your proposer is expected to assist you and any dependants in meeting costs associated with travel to Australia and initial settlement after arrival.

Emergency Rescue (subclass 203)

- You are subject to persecution in your home country; and
- there are urgent and compelling reasons for you to be resettled in Australia.

Requests for urgent assistance under this subclass are usually made on your behalf by the UNHCR.

© COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA, 2022

Woman at Risk (subclass 204)

- You are a woman living outside your home country; and
- subject to persecution in your home country or are registered with the UNHCR as being 'of concern'; and
- without the protection of a male relative; and
- in danger of victimisation, harassment or serious abuse because you are female.

Children under 18

Children under the age of 18 who have no parents, or who have been separated from their parents, may also be granted a visa in one of the subclasses listed above. However, the Australian Government must be satisfied the child's entry to Australia is in the best interest of the child and that the rights of the parents, if any, are properly considered.

If any children under 18 who are members of the family unit and included in this application are not your biological children, you must provide information and documentation as to who their birth parents are/were.

Community Support Program

The Community Support Program enables communities and businesses, as well as families and individuals, to propose applicants with employment prospects (and their families) and to support their settlement in Australia. Only Approved Proposing Organisations (APOs) may propose people for entry to Australia in the Community Support Program.

Information about the Community Support Program is available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/CSP

Note: Your APO must complete form 1417 Community Support Program Proposal by Approved Proposing Organisation. Your APO must lodge both of these forms (form 842 and form 1417) electronically following the directions on the Department's website https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/departmental-forms/online-forms/special-humanitarian-visa-submission-form or by post.

The Department will share your personal information that was collected during the processing of your application with your APO. If a visa is granted, this information may be used by the APO to enable delivery of settlement services and support. Your APO may also share your personal information with other organisations, known as Supporting Community Organisations, so they can provide services to you to help you settle in Australia.

'Split family' provisions for immediate family of permanent Protection (Class XA), humanitarian (Class XB) or Resolution of Status (Class CD)visa holders.

You should use this form if, within the last 5 years, a member of your 'immediate family' was granted either a:

- permanent Protection visa (subclass 866); or
- humanitarian visa (subclasses 200, 201, 202, 203 or 204); or
- Resolution of Status (Class CD) visa (subclass 851).

Note: Your proposer must not have been an illegal maritime arrival who arrived on or after 13 August 2012.

Note: Under the 'split family' provisions, 'Immediate family' means you are the spouse, de facto partner (including same-sex partner), dependent child or in certain circumstances a parent of the person in Australia who is proposing your entry (that is, your proposer has completed form 681).

Note: You can only apply as a parent under these 'split family' provisions if your child in Australia is under 18 years of age.

To be eligible for the grant of a humanitarian visa under the 'split family' provisions for immediate family:

- you must apply within 5 years of the permanent Protection, humanitarian or Resolution of Status visa being granted to your proposer;
- your proposer must complete a form 681 Refugee and Special Humanitarian Proposal (available from the Department's website) for you to submit together with your own visa application;
- your proposer must have declared you to the Department as an immediate family member before the grant of their own visa.

Partner

'Partner' means your spouse or de facto partner (including same-sex partners).

Residential address

You must advise the Department where you intend to live while your application is being dealt with, or if you change your residential address after your application has been lodged. Failure to give a residential address will result in your application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Your application

You should answer the questions in this form truthfully and fully and attach any supporting documents. Forms that are incomplete could delay a decision being made on your application, or your application could be refused.

Not all applicants are interviewed and a decision may be taken on the information provided in your application only. You need to make sure you include all details about your situation in your application.

If you need more space than is provided in this form for any of your answers, attach a separate page, clearly marking the question number the page relates to. Additional pages must be signed and dated by each person aged 18 years or over included in this application.

Whoshould beincluded in thisapplication?

You should include in this form ALL members of your family unit. Your family unit includes your spouse, de facto partner (including same-sex partner), dependent children outside Australia and other dependent relatives who usually live with you (eg. a dependent parent). 'Dependent' means wholly or substantially dependent on you or your partner for financial, psychological or physical support.

Details of dependent family members NOT included in your visa application should be included at Question 12. If you fail to declare immediate family members in your application, they may not be able to access the 'split family' provisions for immediate family members (referred to above) if they apply for a visa at a later time.

Non-dependent family members (eg. married children or children over 18 who are independent) should complete their own form 842 if they wish to be considered for entry to Australia on humanitarian grounds.

Integrityofapplication

The Department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. Please be aware that if you provide us with fraudulent documents or claims, this may result in processing delays or your application being refused.
