Application for an Offshore Humanitarian visa

Refugeeand Humanitarian (ClassXB) visa

Form
1043

The Department of Home Affairs (the Department) acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia.

This includes understanding that the English language, as the national language, is an important unifying element of Australian society. Australian society is also united through the following shared values:

- respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual;
- freedom of religion (including the freedom not to follow a particular religion), freedom of speech, and freedom of association;
- commitment to the rule of law, which means that all people are subject to the law and should obey it;
- parliamentary democracy whereby our laws are determined by parliaments elected by the people, those laws being paramount and overriding any other inconsistent religious or secular 'laws';
- equality of opportunity for all people, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, or national or ethnic origin;
- a 'fair go' for all that embraces:
  - mutual respect;
  - tolerance;
  - compassion for those in need; and
  - equality of opportunity for all.

The Life in Australia booklet provides more information on the values that Australians share and their way of life. This booklet is available in a wide range of languages and can be obtained from www.homeaffairs.gov.au

You are encouraged to read the Life in Australia booklet before completing this application form. If you have difficulty, or are unable to read the booklet, you may have the content of it explained to you, for example, by a friend or relative. This form contains a statement, that you must sign, that confirms you understand and will undertake to conduct yourself in accordance with the values of Australian society (as explained in the booklet) and will obey the laws of Australia.

is statement must also be signed by each person aged 18 years or over, who is included in this form.

Who should use this application?

You should use this form if you are outside Australia and wish to apply for entry to Australia on humanitarian grounds. This class of visa includes the following 5 subclasses:

- Refugee (subclass 200)
- In-country Special Humanitarian (subclass 201)
- Global Special Humanitarian (subclass 202)
- Emergency Rescue (subclass 203)
- Woman at Risk (subclass 204).

You should also use this form if you are applying under the Community Support Program.

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. When you have completed your application we recommend that you keep a copy for your records.

Australia's offshore Humanitarian Program

There are a limited number of places available each year under the program. In setting the size of the program, the Australian Government considers:

- the views of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR);
- the views of the Australian community; and
- Australia's capacity to settle refugees and people in need.

Requirements for each visa subclass

Your application will be assessed against the 5 visa subclasses of the Refugee and Humanitarian (Class XB) visa class. To be granted a visa, you must be assessed as meeting the requirements for one of these subclasses. These are set out in Australia's Migration Act and Regulations and the main requirements for each subclass are:

Refugee (subclass 200)

- You are living outside your home country; and
- you are subject to persecution in your home country; and
- you are in need of resettlement.

The UNHCR provides advice to the Australian Government on the need for resettlement.

In-country Special Humanitarian(subclass 201)

- You are in your home country; and
- you are subject to persecution.

Only a small number of places are available under this subclass.

Global Special Humanitarian (subclass 202)

- You are living outside your home country; and
- you are subject to substantial discrimination amounting to gross violation of your human rights in your home country; and
- you have included a valid form 681 Refugee and Special Humanitarian Proposal with your application.

Form 681 needs to be completed by an Australian citizen or permanent resident, eligible New Zealand citizen, or community organisation in Australia (a 'proposer') who is willing to support your application.

As the government does not fund travel costs for this visa subclass, your proposer is expected to assist you and any dependants in meeting costs associated with travel to Australia and initial settlement after arrival.

Emergency Rescue (subclass 203)

- You are subject to persecution in your home country; and
- there are urgent and compelling reasons for you to be resettled in Australia.

Requests for urgent assistance under this subclass are usually made on your behalf by the UNHCR.

Part A – Summary of people included in this application

- Only include members of your family who are dependent on you or your partner.
- A dependant is a person who is wholly or substantially dependent on you or your partner for financial, psyc physical support.
- The term 'partner' in this form, means your spouse or de facto partner (including same-sex partners).
- Non-dependent family members (eg. adult independent children, married children or children over 18 who own income) should complete their own application form. However you should still list any non-dependent Question 14 and Question 15 of Part D on this form.
- You must attach evidence of the identity of each person (eg. certified copy of birth certificate, marriage certificate, passport), wherever this is available. If you do not have identity documents, please attach an explanation as to why you no longer have them.
- For each person included who is not the main applicant's partner or child under 18 years, you must attach a statement explaining why this person is dependent on the main applicant.
- It is important that all names are spelled correctly and dates of birth are accurate.
