Application for a TemporaryWork(LongStayActivity) visa

Form 1482

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia. As part of this application every person aged 18 years or over must declare that they will respect Australian values, as outlined below and obey the laws of Australia.

Australian values include respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual, freedom of religion, commitment to the rule of law, Parliamentary democracy, equality of men and women and a spirit of egalitarianism that embraces mutual respect, tolerance, fair play and compassion for those in need and pursuit of the public good.

Australian society also values equality of opportunity for individuals, regardless of their race, religion or ethnic background. It is also important to understand that English is the national language.

Further information is contained in the Life in Australia booklet, however, you are not required to read the booklet. The booklet is available in a wide range of languages. If you would like a copy of the booklet it can be obtained from www.immi.gov.au

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete the application. Once you have completed the application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

All relevant questions on this form should be answered and any requested information attached. The department may decide the application on the basis of the information provided on the application form.

All forms are available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Who should use this form? Use this form if you:

- have been nominated by a long stay activity sponsor or exchange sponsor to work in a skilled position under a staff exchange arrangement; have been nominated by a long stay
- activity sponsor or sport sponsor to be employed or to undertake an activity in a sports position in relation to a sporting club, team or event in Australia;
- have been nominated by a long stay activity sponsor or religious worker sponsor to undertake full-time religious work in Australia that directly serves an institution's religious objectives;ralia;
- have been nominated by a long stay activity sponsor to undertake full-time domestic duties in the private household of an eligible Temporary Work (Skilled) (subclass 457) visa holder or a Temporary Work (International Relations) (subclass 403) visa holder who has been granted in the privileges and immunities stream; or
- are a family member of a primary applicant or holder of a Temporary Work (Long Stay Activity) visa, Exchange visa, Sport visa, Religious Worker visa or Domestic Worker (Executive) visa and you are applying to join them.

Who should be included in this application?

As the primary person you should include your details as well as all family members (secondary persons) who will be accompanying you to Australia.

Family members include your partner, children under 18 years of age AND children and other relatives 18 years or over who are wholly or substantially reliant on you for financial support for their basic needs.

'Partner' means your spouse or de facto partner (including a same-sex partner).

People 18 years or over must show that they have been reliant on you for a substantial period and that they are more reliant on you than on any other person or source. A person may also be considered dependent on you if they rely on you for financial support because of a disability.

Note: A child of any age who is engaged to be married or who has a partner is not considered dependent

Family members joining a temporary resident in Australia

If as a family member you intend to join the primary person in Australia who holds a Temporary Work (Long Stay Activity) (subclass 401) visa, Exchange (subclass 411) visa, Sport (subclass 421) visa, Religious Worker (subclass 428) visa or Domestic Worker (Executive) (subclass 427) visa you will need to make a separate visa application.

All applicants for this visa must be sponsored. You must show evidence that the organisation in Australia who has sponsored the primary visa holder will also accept responsibility for you during your stay in Australia.

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programmes. In relation to this application, if you or a member of your family unit:

- provide, or have provided in a previous application, fraudulent documents or false or misleading information (knowingly or not); and/or
- fail to satisfy, or have failed to satisfy in a previous application,the Minister of your or their identity;

this visa application may be refused and you, and any members of your family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time, as set out in migration legislation. If information or documents are found to be fraudulent or misleading after the grant of a visa, it may subsequently be cancelled

Sponsorship obligations The sponsor must meet a number of sponsorship obligations in relation to the primary person and any secondary persons .Further information about sponsorship obligations is available from.thedepartment'swebsite www.immi.gov.au/business/pages/temporary-residence-sponsor-obligations.aspx If your visa application is approved, it will permit you to work or undertake activities for your sponsor in the nominated position, or position in relation to which your visa was granted, for the visa validity period. Should you cease employment or the activities with your sponsor, or if you believe the sponsor is not meeting their sponsorship obligations, you should contact your nearest office of the department. To ensure the integrity of temporary sponsored residence visas, the department has a thorough monitoring process to assist in ensuring compliance with programme requirements

Other obligations

The sponsor must also comply with other applicable laws of the Commonwealth, states and territories. If the department believes that the sponsor has breached a law of the Commonwealth or a state or territory, the department may take action to bar the sponsor from accessing further overseas people for the specified period or may cancel the sponsorship.
Further information about sponsorship obligations is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/business/pages/temporary-residence sponsor-obligations.aspx

Residential address
You must provide the address of where you intend to live during the period that your application is being considered. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Passport information Most visa applicants will be required to hold a valid passport before they can be granted a visa. It is strongly recommended that the passport be valid for at least 6 months. If you change your passport after you have been granted the visa you must notify the nearest Australian mission or office of the department.
If you do not provide us with the details of any new or additional passport you use to travel to Australia, you may experience significant delays at the airport and may be denied permission to board your plane.
Do NOT send your passport with your visa application.
You must provide with your visa application a certified copy of the page from your passport showing your photo and details. The department will advise you if your application has been approved. Please keep a copy of the Visa Grant Notification in a safe place for your reference
Health requirements All applicants must meet Australia's health requirements. You and any family members included in this application may be required to undergo a chest x-ray and health examination in order to meet the criteria for the grant of a subclass 401 visa. For further information, refer to the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/health-requirements/health exam.htm

Health insurance requirements You are required to hold adequate private medical and hospital health insurance for the entire time you are in Australia on a subclass 401 visa. This insurance does not have to be held with an Australian insurer – arrangements made in your home country may be assessed as being acceptable. To meet this requirement you should attach to this application evidence of your health insurance policy which states the level of health care provided by the insurance policy. A copy of the suggested certification letter and further information on the minimum level of coverage is available from www.immi.gov.au/skilled/ The above does not apply if you have enrolled with Medicare (Australia's national health cover). Information on entitlements to Medicare is available from www.humanservices.gov.au

Medicare Levy Exemption
Subclass 401 visa holders who are not an eligible Australian resident for Medicare benefit purposes and whose country does not have a reciprocal health arrangement with Australia may be eligible to obtain an exemption of the Medicare levy payment in their tax return. Please contact Medicare Australia directly for further advice on 132 011 or by writing to

Visa conditions
Visa condition 8107
If your visa application is approved, it will be subject to visa condition 8107.
This requires that a primary holder of a subclass 401 visa, must not, during their period of stay:
• cease to be employed, or cease to undertake the activity in relation to which the visa was granted;
• work in a position, or engage in an activity inconsistent with the position or activity in relation to which the visa was granted; or
• engage in work for another person or on their own account, while undertaking the employment or activity in relation to which the visa was granted.
If you wish to work for another organisation which is not your current sponsor you do not need to make a new visa application. Before you can work for another organisation, your new sponsor must nominate you to undertake that position. You must not commence work for the new sponsor until the nomination is approved.

Visa condition – 8501
If your visa application is approved, it will be subject to condition 8501. This requires all visa holders to maintain adequate health insurance while in Australia and holding a subclass 401 visa.

Visa condition – 8303
If your visa application is approved, it will be subject to condition 8303. Visa holders must not become involved in activities disruptive to, or violence threatening harm to, the Australian community or a group within the Australian community.
In addition, there may be other conditions of your entry and stay in Australia applied to your visa.
